The image features a large, stylized title 'SJS' in a metallic, textured font. The letters are interconnected, with the 'S' and 'J' sharing a vertical stem. A horizontal bar passes through the middle of the 'J' and 'S', containing the word 'Footprints' in a smaller, elegant serif font. The entire composition is set against a solid black background, framed by horizontal bars at the top and bottom.

CLASS OF 1994

Green and Gold

Combined, they are symbolic of Nature and of Youth.
This issue of Footprints, the image of our youth, is dedicated to our Environment.

The world has become increasingly conscious of how essential, and how threatened, our delicately balanced natural environment is as a source and a support of all life. However, the most compelling images of nature are those of its majestic beauty:

the velvet petal of a newly-opened flower,
the life-breathing, swaying canopy of a tree,
the thunder and spray of waves crashing onto the beach,
the first few soft drops of a gentle rain,
the hypnotic dance and crackle of a fire in the hearth,
the flaming sunset in a paint-streaked sky,
the autumn wind sweeping the leaves along the ground,
the first sniff of spring on a caressing breeze.

Just as we recognize that there is a science of nature and an art of nature, so too we recognize that nature is found in many forms and is inherent in all the disciplines: literature, history, philosophy, psychology, social sciences, mathematics, biology, chemistry, languages and education. But no matter what discipline we are connected with, as our world moves on we face the demanding struggle to understand the human nature lodged in the human heart.

We, the Class of 1994, promise to protect and cherish the nature of the earth, the nature of the heart, and the nature of our individual disciplines, to the best of our abilities, wherever life may lead us.

There are other environments that are a part of our world, and are just as important — our home environment, our community environment, and our school environment. This issue of Footprints celebrates and commemorates our years as friends and family in St. Joseph's loving and nurturing environment.

Open these pages and behold the images of our youth.
Green and Gold . . . the Class of 1994

Sherrie Van Arnam

This issue of Footprints is dedicated to both our general environment and our school environment. Our school environment has been affected by one person in particular over the last four years — and that person is Sherrie Van Arnam.

Sherrie is one of the special people we see daily in our school environment. In the administration of all colleges there is one person who stands out of the crowd. At St. Joseph's, Sherrie is that person. Sherrie will go out of her way for us, she'll find out things that we need to know, and on those days when everything seems to go wrong, she'll offer us kind words that make our day. Sherrie gives us that little hug or pat on the back when we most need it and would rather give us advice than warnings. In both happy and sad times, Sherrie is an anchor for us all.

Sherrie, we cannot express our love fully on this single page, but know that we will remember you always in our hearts and minds. Thank you for a wonderful four years.

Earth: Our Land, Our Country, Our World

As we move into the 21st Century, there are many threats to Mother Earth: nuclear waste, the Greenhouse Effect, war, famine, and disease. The graduating class of '94, by the year 2000, will be in a position to help Mother Earth. Through the knowledge we attained here at St. Joseph's, we will become the educators, scientists, psychologists, and activists our world desperately needs. We will help preserve Mother Earth for our generation and future generations. We will reinvest in Mother Earth all she has invested in us.

Yesterday is always near
Its memories live inside me
With joys that still can warm my heart
And lessons that still guide me
Yet tomorrow always beckons
And its promise can inspire
New efforts to achieve and grow
To aim forever higher.

I would like to thank all of the special people in my life, especially my family and that one special person who knows who they are. I love you all and thank you for being my strength throughout these four years; the best is yet to come.

To the sisters of $\text{BY}\Delta$: stay strong and don't forget sisters stick together. Miss ya!

To the brothers of $\Psi\Phi\Omega$: the juice is in the jungle, don't forget your big Sis. Lots of Luck!

"Love is a knowledge attained through communication; without it, knowledge of love is impossible."

Mommy — I love you and thank you for all your love, support, and understanding. "I'll be there . . ." You'll always be "the wind beneath my wings." Don't cry — I made it!

To all those of St. Joe's Faculty who lent an ear and a shoulder, "thanks" isn't enough, so accept my love and eternal gratitude. Child Study Dept.: World's Best!

Joey, my love, after all we've been through, it's still together 4 ever and a day. "Who loves U, Baby?"

Chris: Twin Hype — 'til the end.

Maria: I Love U Tweety!

Class of 1994: It's been real. Always remember — A smile and a tear. See ya!

Vivian Barreto, B.A.

"I've finally made it!" Special Thanks to my Parents and to God. I couldn't have done it without you!

To My Family: I hope I've made you proud.

To all who believed in me: THANK YOU for standing by me!

To the Friends I leave behind: I'll always CHERISH the memories we've shared.

*"I don't know where this road is going to lead
All I know is where we've been and what we've been through.*

*If we get to see tomorrow,
I hope it's worth all the wait.*

It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday."

*I love you and will always be here for you.
This would not have been possible without you.
Thanks.*

Sis:

What can I say, you are my big sister and I love you. Miles can not separate our hearts.

Joe:

*Thank you for your love and patience.
I owe a lot of this to you. Please remember that no matter what happens between us there is always a place for you in my heart. I LOVE YOU.*

There are many roads leading to the same destination. The road I chose took a little longer, but the people and experiences I encountered along the way have made me a better person.

Dennis and Vic — Without your love and support I would not have made it to graduation day. Thank you for always being there for me.

Finally, a special thanks to my mom, who showed me that hidden inside each of us is the strength we need to overcome whatever obstacles we are faced with. Mom, this one is for you!

Jill Ann Brody, B.S.

There comes a time in our life when we must say goodbye to the things that we held close to our hearts. Four years have passed me by quicker than I could have ever imagined. My experience here has left me with the knowledge, the strength, and the courage to continue my journey into adulthood. The friendships I have made here will never be forgotten as well as the memories we shared together.

Mom, Dad, and Christine,

I could not have made it this far without your love and support. I will be forever grateful. I love you.

My Sisters and Brothers of Beta Upsilon Delta and Psi Phi Omega,

We have been through so much together, both good times and bad. The memories we made will never be forgotten. I love you all.

As I close the chapter on my college years, it is hard to capture all the memories or to say meaningful words that encompass all my four years at SJC. However, it would be remiss of me not to thank those individuals who made it possible for me to get this far, or those people who gave the word "friendship" a whole new meaning.

Dad, Mom, Vicki, Sunday and Bidemi — Thanks for supporting me and helping me become the first American-born Fasoye to go to college. I love you all.

"Most of what I really need to know about how to live and what to do and how to be I learned in kindergarten. These are the things I learned: Share everything. Play fair. Don't hit people. Put things back where you found them. Clean up your own mess. Don't take things that aren't yours. Say you're sorry when you hurt somebody. Wash your hands before you eat. Flush. Warm cookies and cold milk are good for you. Live a balanced life — learn some and think some and draw and paint and sing and dance and play and work every day some. Take a nap every afternoon. When you go out into the world, watch out for traffic, hold hands and stick together. Be aware of wonder."

"Here I discover that thought is an attribute that really does belong to me. This alone cannot be detached from me. I am; I exist; this is certain. But for how long? For as long as I think. Because perhaps it could also come to pass that if I should cease from all thinking I would then utterly cease to exist . . . Now, I am a true thing, and truly existing; but what kind of thing? I have said it already: a thing that thinks. . . . What is that? A thing that doubts, understands, affirms, denies, wills, refuses, and which also imagines and senses . . . My S.J.C. Family,

Our college career has come to an end. Memories we've created will last longer than these short four years. We laughed side by side, but were even closer when somebody "needed a friend." For this reason you will all be dear to me.

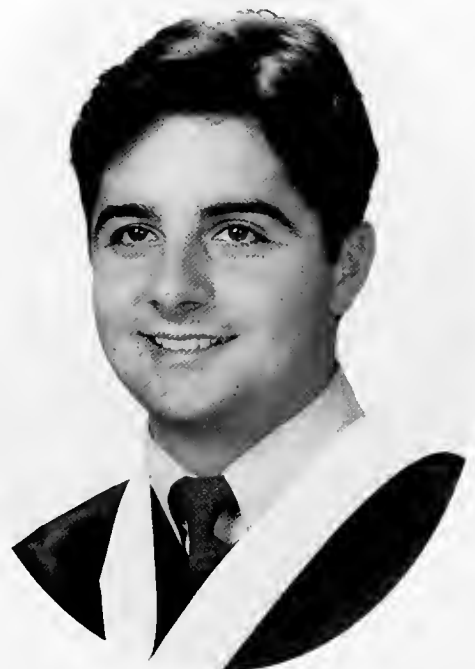

Mom, Dad, Eric, Craig, Joan,

I do not say it often enough, but I love you all very much. At this point we are charting our futures. We can not be together as often as we would like; fortunately, distance will not taint feelings we share.

Mom, thanks for being my inspiration and pushing me to carry out my dreams.
Ed, I'm finally catching up to you!
Gram, you are always in my heart and on my mind. I love you all!
To Chapel Players: Thanks for the memories.
To my family — Eamonn, Lilybell, John, Andrea, Brad, Sue and Mike: I don't know how I would have made it through these four years without your smiling faces. Phil and Millybabes, I love you!
Boog, without you and your heart I would never have made it this far. Thank you for being my best friend. I love you always.
Goodbye everyone.

"A memory is a special treasure
Which endures and gives us pleasure.
One we cherish always, for we know —
Recalling certain times and places,
Tender moments, smiling faces,
Always brings our hearts a warming glow.

Though time may pass, a memory
stays,
Reminding us of happy days,
And of the people who have touched our lives —

Of favors done, and love expressed
Of those who've stood above the rest,
A memory is a treasure that survives."

A Teacher's Inspiration
"A candle is but a little thing
It starts with a bit of string
Yet clipped and dipped with patient hand
It gathers wax upon the strand
Until, complete and snowy white,
It gives at last a lovely light.
Life seems to be like that bit of string
Each deed we do a simple thing
Yet, day by day, if on life's strand,
We work with patient heart and hand
It gathers joy, makes dark days bright,
And gives at last a lovely light."

Water: the life-holding elixir filling the veins of our earth.

It shows us its beauty in the spring dew that sparkles on the grass of the Mall, its gentleness in the touch of raindrops on our skin, and its power in the crash of waterfalls and ocean waves. As dependent as we are upon water for survival, there are still secrets in the ocean depths which make it an unknown frontier on our earth. It is fitting, then, that water has always been a symbol of the veiled part of our inner selves. As we turn the next few pages, the class of 1994 can celebrate the development of our own inner selves through our years at St. Joseph's: our shared friendships, our maturation, our deeper understanding of our selves and our world, and our fulfillment of certain goals. But as the depths of the ocean are as yet unexplored, so too the class of 1994 must look forward to our future years when we will see more of our world and of the bottomless reaches of our own souls.

Air: not an invisible element.

It manifests its beauty in a clear and endless blue sky, its gentleness in a soft spring breeze across the Mall, its power in a sharp winter wind that pushes us across Clinton Avenue. Since breathing is a reflexive action, we often take for granted the life that air brings to us. Similarly, we often do not acknowledge the dedication and the services of St. Joseph's faculty and staff. In the following pages, the Class of 1994 offers them a special thanks for filling us with their knowledge of the academic disciplines, for their wisdom of experience, and for increasing our appetite for learning.

Thank you for enabling us to take flight into the ever-broadening horizon of our futures. Our hunger for knowledge should be as endless as the sky and as sustaining as the air that fills us and enables us to live.

To the Members of the Class of 1994:

Each ending is, of course, also a beginning.

There are traditions to nurture,
there are dreams to dream,
there are goals to reach.

As we look forward to the Year 2000 and beyond, we are confident that you will be with us in that future.

Congratulations and best wishes!

S. Margaret Louise Shea: A "valiant woman" whose life was devoted to improving the lives of young children. She has left a lasting legacy to the Dillon Center and to the many St. Joseph's Child Study students in whom she developed teaching skills.

Fire: is one of the most powerful elements in nature

It is also one of the strongest emotions that most humans can feel, in its figurative sense. The strength of the heart and the will of the spirit — that's what fire can be in one's soul. That strength of spirit carries us from day to day.

Upon entering St. Joseph's College, our hearts were kindled with fire — spirit. We are evidence of that spirit through the activities in which we took part. As St. Joseph's graduating class of 1994, we have spent four years sharing our fire, giving sparks to sports, drama, clubs, and/or student government. Our spirit continues to lead us as we move on to graduate school and our careers. The fire which was sparked at St. Joseph's College has become an internal flame which can never be extinguished.

DANCE-A-THON 1993

This yearbook is more than a photo album of our years in college. It is a collection of memories shared by the graduating class of 1994. It highlights our lives in relation to one another and to the world, as we know it, in the 1990's. It reminds us of many special moments and some very difficult times experienced during our years at St. Joseph's.

It is our hope that the graduating class of 1994 will hold this yearbook, this collection of memories, close to their hearts and not forget the first four years of the last decade of the century.

A Creed to Live By

Don't undermine your worth by comparing yourself with others.

It is because we are different that each of us is special.

Don't set your goals by what other people deem important.

Only you know what is best for you.

Don't take for granted the things closest to your heart.

*Cling to them as you would your life,
for without them life is meaningless.*

*Don't let your life slip through your fingers
by living in the past or for the future.*

*By living your life one day at a time,
you live all the days of your life.*

Don't give up when you still have something to give.

Nothing is really over til the moment you stop trying.

Don't be afraid to admit that you are less than perfect.

It is this fragile thread that binds us to each other.

Don't be afraid to encounter risks.

It is by taking chances that we learn how to be brave.

Don't shut love out of your life by saying it's impossible to find.

*The quickest way to receive love is to give love;
the fastest way to lose love is to hold it too tightly;
and the best way to keep love is to give it wings.*

Don't dismiss your dreams.

To be without dreams is to be without hope;

to be without hope is to be without purpose.

Don't run through life so fast that you forget not only where you've been but also where you're going.

Life is not a race, but a journey to be savored each step of the way.

Dear Tara,

You are approaching college graduation and it's hard to believe how fast the years have gone by. Throughout the years, you have worked hard to achieve your goals and in the years ahead may you have all the success you are deserving of.

You are a very special daughter. You have made all of our dreams come true and we want to say "thank you" from the bottom of our hearts for making us very proud parents.

We Love You,
Mom & Dad

Tara,

I'm so happy you made it through college, you've worked so hard at everything. Thank you for being my sister and my friend. Even though I haven't always shown it, I really do appreciate everything you do for me. I'm proud you are my sister, and I know that you will be successful in the future.

Congratulations,
I Love you,
Samantha

Dear Deborah,

It seems like only yesterday that you were a little girl and here you are graduating college. May your graduation be a day to remember, for you have given us a day filled with love, pride and happiness in all that you have accomplished. We are very proud of you Deborah.

Love, Mom and Dad

Dear Deborah,

Congratulations! We're very proud of you. We wish you the best of luck for your future. Always remember how special you are to us. You're the greatest . . . BEAT IT!

Love, Cathy and Tommy

Dear Deborah,

Go Debbie, Go Debbie, Go Debbie, Go Debbie! Congratulations!

Dear Deb,

The day has come for the little birdie to fly
Fly away in the sky & to leave it's nest, that's so high
Can it fly, like an eagle in the sky?
It must realize it can fly, for why would it have wings to try, to flap its feathers so high It's realized it's in the sky, for it's happy and it will cry.
It must say good-bye, to all it once knew, to something that's new I knew you could, I knew you would fly so high in the sky, so on this day I will say Congratulations. I love you today and everyday.

Friends Forever

Sandra,

I was there to witness your birth, your first tooth, your first step.
You stumbled, and we picked you up, you walked, and I was there to guide you.

You ran, and I held my breath.

Watching you grow was like watching a rose bloom.

The sun shone on you, and with its light you grew to unfold into the woman you are today.

Not so unlike me, your mother.

Your friend,

Forever.

Sandra, words cannot express how proud we are of you.
Congratulations! Que Dios Te Bendiga Hoy y Siempre.

 YOUR FUTURE BE HEALTHY, HAPPY,
 SUCCESSFUL, AND JUST AS BRIGHT
 AS YOU HAVE MADE OUR LIVES.

LOVE ALWAYS,

MOM AND DAD

Mom and Dad — You have shaped my future: All those books you read to me when I was little to try to get me to eat have turned me into an English teacher. Your support, encouragement, appreciation for the value of an education, and love are invaluable to me. I love you both as much as you love me.

Tazann — I'll never forget how we played "school" together when we were little, and I know you'll never forget having to memorize "Eldorado." Thanks for being my "sister". I love you and your big smile too!

Jason — Thanks for taking me to the library, for holding me when I needed you, and for leaving me alone when I was scrambling to do work. You will always be in my heart. I love you.

Dee, Mona, Temi — My wonderful friends, you've wanted to strangle me more than a few times, but you've always loved me and accepted me. You mean more to me than I can say with words (now you know that means a lot!). I love you!

Love always,

Lori

To My Family,
 Thank you for being there through the years. I could not have done it without your love and support.

Hilary,

May we never lose the precious friendship that we found at Saint Joseph's College. It suits us so well!

All Of My Friends,

Lots of luck, love, and happiness.

My Sweetheart, My Soulmate,

"This is a chain we'll never break.

Do I dream?

I'm awake?

A heart full of love.

A heart full of you.

A single look and then I knew.

I knew it too.

From today.

Every day.

For it isn't a dream

Not a dream

After all."

—Les Misérables

Somehow we found a way. I love you.

Alice

To Alice My Love,

A lot of people only know you from what they see on the outside, while you're at work, at school, or at play. There's a sensitive side people never see. The side that:

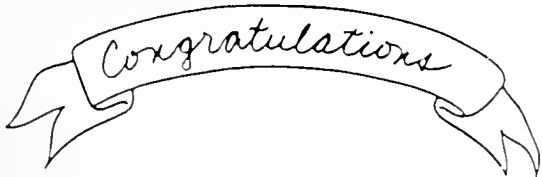

- embraces love and cherishes friendship
- understands without a need for words
- has yearning and desires
- dreams of happiness and success
- never gives up hope

I trust you with my secrets, you now know you can trust me with yours.

You have succeeded in doing something no one else has ever been able to do — you have reached the deepest part of my soul. For that, I love you!

Your Soulmate

Dear Christine,

*We knew you could do it.
We are very proud of you.*

Love Always,

Aunt Denise

Uncle Ricky

We love you

Patricia!

Good Luck!

Mom & Dad

Dearest Mona,

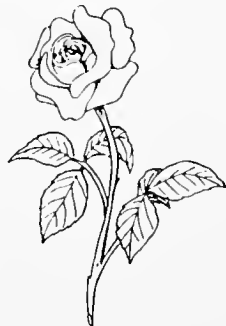

We have seen you grow from a small wispy haired girl into a beautiful young woman. You have worked hard and with great enthusiasm to achieve your present accomplishments. We are proud of you and congratulate you. We will always be there for you.

*Love,
Mom and Dad*

We love you, Mona, Congratulations!
Andrew, Karen and Caroline

We knew you could do it — you had all the wild cards!

Love,
Oma and Opa

To Mom and Dad—none of this would have been possible without you. You have always helped me, not just financially, but emotionally. You have made sure my past, present, and future are very happy. I love you both very much!

To Alice—you will always be my “Be Fri”! We have been through a lot in the past four years and it only makes me glad we met. You are truly the sister I never had until four years ago and will have for many more. I love ya “Stinky”!

To Michelle—you have been a second mother to me and a good friend! You have been a very important person to me and I will always be grateful. I love you Ma!

To all my friends—I have had a lot of fun and you all have made these four years great! I wish you all luck and love!
